HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand To Return—Prince Aage Arrives—Weddings and Engagements

THE French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand will return to their country shortly. It is expected that they will sail immediately after the signing of the peace treaty, probably returning with President Wilson. M. Jusserand has been serving as adviser to the French delegates to the peace conference.

Prince Aage of Denmark reached Washington this morning and is staying at the Shoreham. He is traveling unofficially and the festivities which are being planned in his honor are quite unofficial in character.

After a four-day visit in the Capital as the nation's guests, Dr. Epitacio Pessoa, President-elect of Brazil, and the members of his party are now staying in New York. Later they will go to Ottawa, where they will be entertained by the Duke of Devonshire, governor general of Canada.

Last night Dr. Pessoa was the guest of honor at a banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria tendered by the mayor's committee on receptions to distinguished guests. Among those present were Mayor John F. Hylan, Rodman Wainmaker, chairman of the committee; Breckinridge Long, Third Assistant Secretary of State; Jordan Herbert Stabler, John Bassett Moore, president of the Pan-American Society of the United States; Mr. Arthur H. Delbert, U. S. Ambassador in Brazil; director general of the Pan American Union; Rear Admiral James H. Glenon, Rear Admiral William B. Caperton, Maj. Gen. Thomas H. Barry and Maj. Gen. Joseph E. Kahn.

The American minister to Sweden, Ira Nelson Morris, who is now in New York, will come to Washington tomorrow for a brief stay.

Miss Zane to Wed.

Mrs. A. V. Zane announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Evelyn Zane, to Lieut. Arthur H. Delbert, U. S. Ambassador in Brazil. The wedding will take place in the early autumn. Miss Zane is the daughter of the late Rear Admiral Zane, U. S. N., and a sister of Major Randolph Zane, U. S. M. C., who was killed in France. She is an unusually pretty and charming girl and is a great belle at the Naval Academy, where she has been attending the hops since her schoolgirl days. She has not made her formal debut. Lieut. Delbert expects shortly to be released from the service and will resume the practice of law in Washington.

The announcement of the engagement to relative of Miss Zane, Lieut. Delbert, was made yesterday at a tea given by Mrs. Zane. It was very informal, as the Zane family is in deep mourning, but very pretty. Bells wedding bells hung above the tea table, and a miniature bride and bridegroom surmounting the cake disclosed the pleasant secret.

Takes Newport Cottage.

Mrs. John R. Williams has taken a cottage at Newport for the summer months. Her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Williams McCombs, will be with her for the season.

Mrs. Raymond T. Baker, who is at Holmwood, her country place at Lenox, Mass., has arranged to give a Fourth of July dinner to all the service men who will take part in the parade on that day.

Mrs. William Diston, of Philadelphia, will spend the season at Newport. She has engaged an apartment at the Hilltop Inn, and will arrive on July 10. Her son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. John Wainmaker, 2d, have a cottage at Ochre Point.

Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Theodore Wilkinson, 2d, who have been visiting in Newport and Narragansett Pier for the last fortnight, will return to town tomorrow. Commander Wilkinson has been ordered to sea duty, and during his absence Mrs. Wilkinson will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow are now occupying the place in Virginia which they purchased recently, but will start about July 15 for Aspen Hill, their ranch at Moore, Mont., where they spend part of every summer.

Owen-Littell Wedding.
Miss Ruth Lincoln Littell, daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. I. W. Littell, and Lieut. Comdr. William Cook Owen, U. S. N., were married last evening, the ceremony taking place in the little chapel at Soldiers' Home at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony was followed by a reception at General and Mrs. Littell's quarters. The original intention was to have the reception in the garden, but owing to the inclement weather it was held indoors.

Both the chapel and the house were ablaze with pink roses, hydrangeas, and trailing greens, forming an effective setting for the bridal party. The girls wore light colored gowns and Commander Owen, his best man and the ushers were in white uniforms.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and her sister, Miss Mary Littell, was maid of honor. The other attendants were Mrs. Alexander M. Patch, sister of the bride; Mrs. Wilson G. Bingham, formerly Miss Emily Kutz; Miss Elizabeth Davis and Miss Elizabeth Evans. The best man was Comdr. George Bryan, and the ushers were Comdr. S. M. Kraus, Comdr. J. O. Fisher, Comdr. William H. Wright and Lieut. C. J. Moore.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette crepe and satin, the long train of satin hung from the shoulders, and the only trimming was of duchess lace. Her tulle veil was arranged in cap effect and held with orange blossoms and she carried bride roses and orchids.

The maid of honor was in pink georgette crepe with a large hat of pink georgette trimmed with cream-colored lace, and she carried pink roses. The four bridesmaids were dressed in pink organdie with big blue sashes, their large hats were of pink organdie and blue taffeta, and they carried roses and larkspur.

Later in the evening Commander and Mrs. Owen left for a short wedding trip, the latter wearing a traveling gown of dark blue crepe de chine braided in the same shade and a toque of dark blue and tan georgette crepe. They will return to Washington where Commander Owen is now stationed.

Among the out of town guests were, Mrs. Owen and Miss Owen, of Fayetteville, N. C.; mother and sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. John Owen, of North Carolina; G. B. Littell, the bride's brother; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Barrett, of Norfolk; Mrs. Henry

MRS. JOHN HATS HAMMOND, who has gone to her summer home at East Gloucester, Mass., for the season.

McCook Barrett, of Baltimore; Mrs. Dorat and Miss Dorat, of Warrenton, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rolston, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. John Rolston, of Plainfield, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Wrecks, of Elizabeth, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Mills, of Long Valley, N. J.

Westcotts To Leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Westcott expect to leave town on July 15 to join the latter's mother, Mrs. John F. Rodgers, at York Harbor, Me.

Mrs. Edward Rowland, of Philadelphia, who has spent several winters in Washington, has gone to Ventnor, she will pass the summer.

Mrs. John H. Merriam will start on Monday for the Adirondacks, where she will pass the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spencer, Jr., expect to leave town on Sunday for York Harbor, Me., where they have a cottage for the summer.

Capt. and Mrs. Everett Cook, of Memphis, Tenn., who are now stationed in Washington, will spend the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hurst at Hill Croft, the country home of Mr. Hurst's mother, Mrs. William B. Hurst, near Lutherville, Md. Captain Cook is an American ace.

Visiting In Newport.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. George Remy have gone to Newport and are at the Bayview Hotel.

Mrs. Paul L. Joachim and children will leave Washington on Saturday for River Springs, Md., where they have taken a cottage for the summer.

Lieut. Col. T. G. Morgan Oliphant, U. S. A., who spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Oliphant, left yesterday for Nantucket, Mass., where he will join his wife and children, who are spending the summer there. Colonel Oliphant has just returned from service in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Peelle are leaving in a few days for Eaglesmere, Pa., where Mrs. Peelle will go there several weeks ago, but their departure was delayed by illness. Mr. Peelle will return in about a week, joining his family again later in the summer.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Thompson Wallace, daughter of Mrs. George Mason Wallace, to Franklin W. Marsh, formerly of Massachusetts, now of Washington, took place yesterday. The ceremony was performed at noon in St. John's Church by the Rev. Sidney Wallace, of Waterbury, Conn., brother of the bride. Miss Ruth Cowles was the bride's only attendant, and the best man was Harlow Pendleton, of Boston. The ushers were Elliott Wallace, brother of the bride, and Louis Leonard. The bride wore a gown of white satin made on straight lines, with a broad panel in front and back, the skirt made in short round length.

The only trimming was an exquisite rose point lace jacket with elbow sleeves, an heirloom in the bride's family, and at the hem of the skirt and about the neck a touch of pearl embroidery. Her tulle veil was arranged in cap effect and held with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried bride roses.

The maid of honor wore a dainty frock of pink organdie made with tiny ruffles of white and a large pink organdie hat with a crown of pink flowers, and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink roses. The decorations in the church were entirely in green and white.

Following the ceremony of breakfast for the bridal party and members of the family was served at the Shoreham, after which Mr. and Mrs. Marsh left for a wedding trip, the bride wearing a traveling suit of tan tricollé trimmed with dark blue and a small tan hat trimmed with dark blue. They will make their home in Washington.

Mrs. Wallace, mother of the bride, wore a gown of pearl gray crepe de chine with a large black lace hat trimmed with ostrich feathers, and Mrs. Marsh, mother of the bridegroom, was in orchid Georgette crepe with a large hat of the same material. Acquainted out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Marsh, of Boston, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. H. N. Wallace, of Chicago, a brother of the bride.

Announce Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Alvey announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Madeline Carroll Alvey, to Capt. Edward G. Betts, who was recently returned from overseas. The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock in St. Mark's Church, the Rev. Mr. Stetson, rector of the church, officiating. Miss Alvey will be attended by Miss Margaret Ethel Betts, cousin of the bridegroom, and the best man will be Lieut. Paul Alvey, formerly of the aviation service, U. S. A., brother of the bride.

Miss Lily Beatrice Woodward, daughter of Mrs. Daisy D. Woodward, and Frederick C. Binnall, of East Orange, N. J., were married yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed in the Church of the Epiphany by the Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, in the presence of a small company of relatives and intimate friends. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lucia Woodward as maid of honor and J. A. Prochavsky, of East Orange, was the best man.

The bride wore a smartly tailored gown of white broadcloth with a white feather toque and a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor was in white chiffon over white satin with which she wore a large white hat and carried pink sweet peas. Mrs. Woodward, mother of the bride, was also in white, her gown of satin and her white straw hat trimmed with amber and white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Binnall left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip through the Berkshires and will be at home after July 7 at East Orange, N. J.

The Washington Terminal Women's Auxiliary of the Red Cross gave a surprise party to the chairman, Mrs. G. H. Winslow, on Tuesday evening at 612 D street northeast. A musical and literary program was given by Mrs. O. J. Rider, Mrs. Evelyn Gurley-Kane, and Mrs. Gibson. On behalf of the auxiliary and with words of appreciation from the auxiliary, Mrs. R. A. Todd presented her with a gift. She responded, thanking the members for the interest they had taken and the co-operation they had given in devoting their time to the interests of the Red Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew F. Tighe have as their guest, Mrs. Margaret Dandridge Brown, wife of Lieut. Col. P. G. Brown, of the Canadian forces.

HAIR ON FACE WHAT CAUSES IT

It has been proven by the world's greatest authorities that it stimulates and increases hair growth to merely remove it from the surface of the skin. The only common-sense way to remove hair is to attack it under the skin. DeMirsel, the original sanitary liquid, does this by absorption. Only genuine DeMirsel has a money-back guarantee in each package. At toilet counters in 50c, $1 and $2 sizes, or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price.
